Instructor: Daniella, our fabulous Baby Grand Orchestra Conductor, graduated Stern College with a degree in Psychology & Education. She is now teaching and pursuing a Masters in Educational Psychology. Daniella brings with her over 15 years of experience with singing Jewish music, playing the piano, and performing. Additionally, she loves dancing & acting and guitar and ukulele. Daniella is a group song leader for kids 1+ in her synagogue, and has been a substitute teacher in Hebrew Academy of Miami. She grew up religious, is fluent in Hebrew and spent a year abroad in Israel. Daniella is delighted to watch the joy that Sing and Sign Shabbat helps to bring to the young children and families as she teaches the Shabbat traditions and helps make the connection between the English and Hebrew in the music! Daniella can't wait to start singing and signing THIS SHABBAT Semester with you and your children!
